

Ensuring appropriate treatment and traceability of green-listed waste

Japan Mining Industry Association guideline

- 1 [1] Applicable Smelter shall declare in writing to JMIA that it should abide by this Guideline.
- [2] Applicable Smelter shall include in contract documents with its Business Partners a statement that this Guideline is to be abided by.
- 2 [1] Japan Mining Industry Association shall assign a Smelter code to each of Applicable Smelters.
 [2] Applicable Smelter shall assign a Business Partner code to a Business Partner, and disclose its Smelter code.
- 3 Applicable Smelter shall report to JMIA its environmental and recycling business results and e-scrap import volume for the previous fiscal year.
- 4 Japanese and overseas Trade Partner and Applicable Smelter shall include the Smelter code and Business Partner code in shipping advices and receipts, respectively.
- 5 This Guideline shall be made public on the Japan Mining Industry Association website.
 It shall be applicable to Japan Mining Industry Association member companies' establishments that are located in Japan.
- 6 The Japan Mining Industry Association shall report the current state of environmental and recycling business, e-scrap import volume, etc. every year to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry and the Ministry of the Environment of Japan.