

CONTENTS

SWEEPING POLICY REFORM TOWARDS A “SOUND MATERIAL-CYCLE SOCIETY”
STARTING FROM JAPAN AND SPREADING OVER THE ENTIRE GLOBE
-THE “3R” LOOP CONNECTING JAPAN WITH OTHER COUNTRIES

Executive summary

SECTION 1: THE SITUATION PRIOR TO THE REFORM OF WASTE POLICY IN JAPAN-FROM THE END OF WORLD WAR II TO THE EARLY 1990S .....	2
1. Postwar framework for waste disposal .....	2
1.1. From the end of the war to the period of high economic growth.....	2
1.2. From the end of the period of high economic growth to the period of “bubble economy” .....	5
1.3. The period of the “bubble economy” .....	7
2. Cases of improper disposal of waste .....	9
2.1. The problem of improper waste disposal, as typified by illegal dumping .....	9
2.2. The PCB problem .....	10
SECTION 2: RECENT REFORM OF WASTE MANAGEMENT AND RECYCLING POLICY TOWARD REALIZING A “SOUND MATERIAL-CYCLE SOCIETY” .....	11
1. The three main trends of waste and recycling measures .....	11
1.1. Reinforcing industrial waste measures based on the responsibility of waste-generating businesses .....	11
1.2. Creation and enhancement of recycling measures through extended producer responsibility .....	15
1.3. Promoting municipal waste measures, etc., through collaboration between local and central governments .....	19
2. crosscutting approaches that support the three main trends .....	22
2.1. Promotion of various technical developments .....	22
2.2. New approaches toward lifestyle change .....	24
3. Current status and future targets of waste management and recycling measures based on approaches implemented to date .....	26
3.1. Arrangement of annual data pertaining to waste and recycling .....	27
3.2. Framework and future targets for establishment of a sound material-cycle society.....	29

SECTION 3: ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INTERNATIONAL SOUND
MATERIAL-CYCLE SOCIETY AND JAPAN’S ROLE.....34

1. International circumstances surrounding circulative resources .....34

1.1. Increase of waste generation and diversification of waste characteristics at an international level .....35

1.2. Circulative resources moving across national borders .....36

1.3. Issues caused by increasing waste and transboundary movement of circulative resources .....37

2. Establishment of an international SMS .....38

2.1. Basic concept behind establishment of an international SMS .....38

2.2. Responses that match the characteristics of circulative resources .....40

2.3. Formation of the East Asia Sound Material-Cycle Society Vision and Japan’s role .....41

3. Promoting the 3R Initiative .....43