

Status of Fluorocarbon Recovery from Commercial Freezers/Air Conditioners in FY 2014

December 4, 2015

The Ministry of the Environment (MOE) released the state of the recovery of fluorocarbons from class-1 specified equipments (i.e., commercial freezers such as food showcases, large scale freezers/refrigerators and refrigerated storages, and commercial air conditioners) in FY 2014.

In compliance with the Law Concerning the Recovery and Destruction of Fluorocarbons, Class-1 fluorocarbons recovery operators reported to prefectural governors, the amount of fluorocarbons recovered from class-1 specified equipment in FY 2014.

The total number of class-1 specified equipments collected for disposal and servicing in FY 2014 were approximately 1.39million units and the total amount fluorocarbons recovered were approximately 4, 424 tons.