

Field Assistant Network

～自然と人とをネットワークする～

What is Field Assistant Network?

- Student group linking between “nature conservation organizations” and “university students”
- Managed by university students

What is Field Assistant Network?

- Established in 1989.
- 13 secretariat staff of ten universities

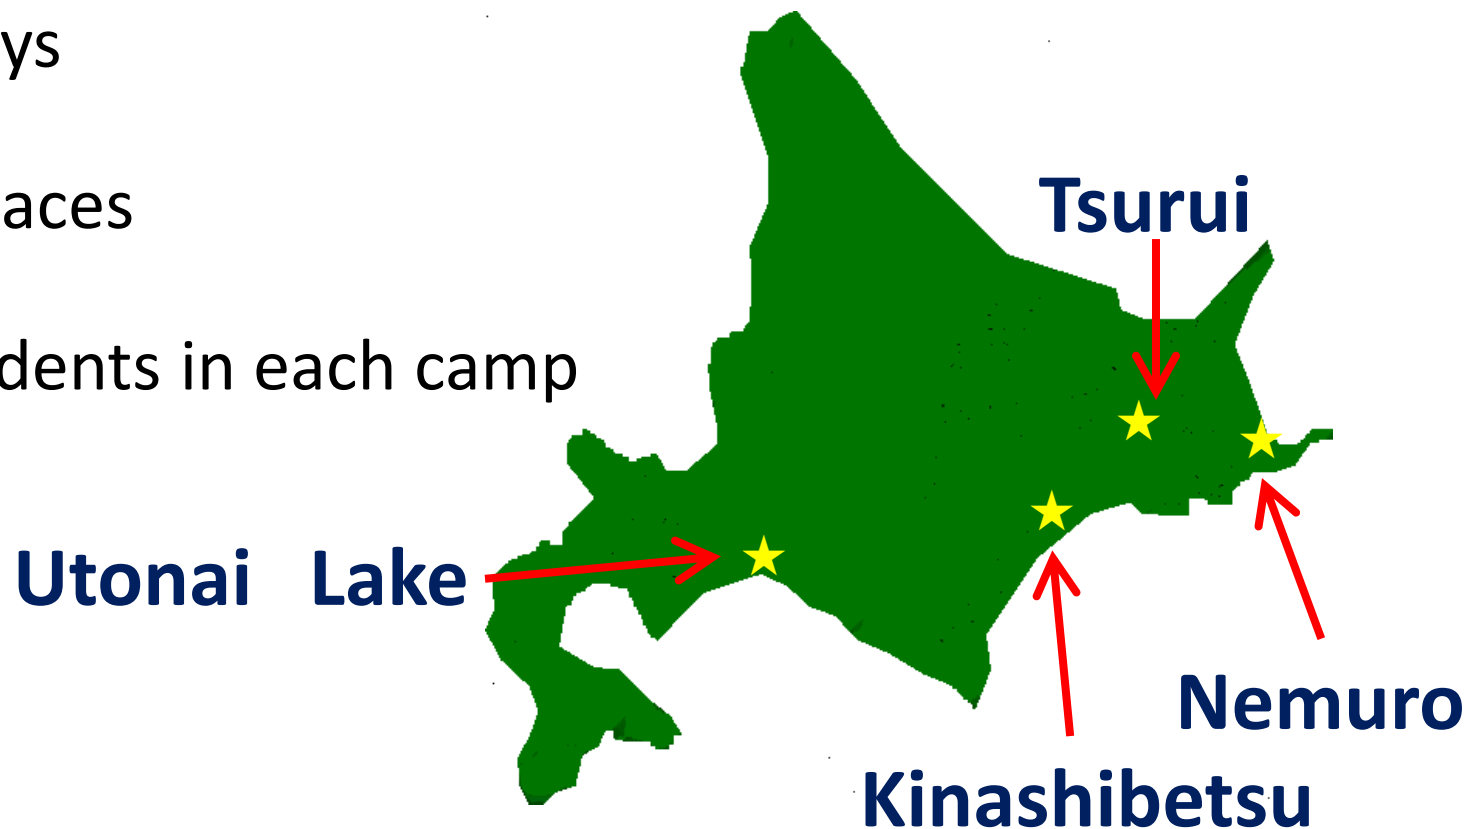

Main projects of Field Assistant Network(1)

- Work Camp
- Student Birdathon

What is Work Camp?

- Volunteer camp managed by students
- 2 times a year
(During spring vacation and summer vacation)
- For 6~10 days
- Held in 4 places
- About 8 students in each camp

Activities

Environmental considerations

Investigation and research

Good Points of Work Camp

You can learn the front of nature conservation.

You can make a lots of friends of other universities.

You can enjoy the nature of Hokkaido

Results

- 123 work camps have been held in five different places in Hokkaido prefecture in this 24 years.

Next Work camp is held in February, 2014!

Main projects of Field Assistant Network(2)

- Work Camp
- Student Birdathon

What is Student Birdathon?

- NEC Student Birdathon is a fundraising sponsored by NEC
- Mixture of Bird watching and Fund-raising

NEC

Rule

The team is united
by three people.

One; the number of bird species observed within 12 hours, two ; the amount of donation
and three ; the number of donors.

The prize is awarded to the high rank.

Good Points of Student Birdathon

- Anyone in Any place in Japan can take part.
- The effort connects to nature conservation directly

Results

- 21 million yen(210 thousand US) in total 24 years
- Many people participated

25th anniversary in this year

Past fund-raising ahead

- Red-crowned Crane

- Little tern

- Japanese Murrelet

Fund-raising this year

ラムサール条約釧路会議20周年記念事業

ラムサール条約釧路会議 + 20

RCJ

FOR CONSERVATION AND WISE USE OF WETLANDS

Thank you for listening!