Detailed description: This is a map of the East China Sea area, centered around the Senkaku Islands (Dokdo Islands). The map shows several groups of islands: the Senkaku Islands (釣魚島), the Diaoyutai Islands (尖閣諸島), the Paracel Islands (西沙群島), and the Macclesfield Bank (美濟礁). It also depicts the continental shelf, major shipping routes, and various maritime boundaries. The map uses a color-coded legend for depth and includes labels for cities like Tokyo and Shanghai.

A detailed map of the northern South China Sea, focusing on the Paracel Islands (Nansha Islands) and the Spratly Islands (Xisha Islands). The map shows numerous small island groups and reefs, many of which are labeled with Chinese names. Key features include the Paracel Islands (Nansha Islands) to the west, the Spratly Islands (Xisha Islands) to the east, and the Macclesfield Bank (Macclesfield Bank) to the south. The map also shows the South China Sea, the Beaufort Sea, and parts of the Philippines to the west and north. Various shipping routes and labels for 'Paracel Islands', 'Spratly Islands', 'South China Sea', 'Beaufort Sea', and 'Philippines' are present.

A detailed map of the Amakusa Islands in Japan, showing numerous small islands and reefs. The main island of Amakusa is labeled "本島" (Honshima) in the center. To its west is the island of Kuroshima (黒島). Further west are the islands of Iriomotejima (伊良摩提島), Yonaguni (由布島), and Nakanoshima (中ノ島). To the east of Amakusa are the islands of Kinkajima (金鹿島), Kurokajima (黒鹿島), and Tachikawajima (立川島). Numerous smaller islands and reefs are scattered throughout the area, including the "千々杵島" (Chichijima) group and the "八島" (Yashima) group. The Amakusa Shrine is marked with a red dot on the northern coast of Amakusa Island.

A detailed map of the Yaeyama Islands in Okinawa Prefecture, Japan. The islands are shown in blue, with land areas in green. The main island of Iriomote is highlighted in yellow and labeled "Iriomote". Other labeled islands include Yonaguni, Taketomi, and Minamata. The map also shows various bays, towns, and geographical features. A scale bar indicates distances from 0 to 10 km.

A map of the Shiwaku Islands (Shiwaku Islands) located off the southern coast of Kyushu, Japan. The islands are shown as a group of small, irregular shapes in blue and green, representing land and water respectively. The map includes labels for surrounding locations such as the city of Ōita, the town of Ureshino, and various islands like Ōshima, Nishijima, and Higashijima. A scale bar and a north arrow are also present.

This is a historical map of the northern Kii Peninsula, specifically the region around Ueda. The map shows a network of roads and rivers. Key locations labeled include Ueda (上田), Hidaka (日高), Takiyama (滝山), and several mountains: Mount Hikosan (彦根山), Mount Kurodake (黒岳), Mount Kurokami (黒神山), and Mount Kurogata (黒岳). The map uses traditional Japanese cartographic conventions, including red ink for labels and green for terrain.
